SECURITY COUNCIL AUTHORIZES DEPLOYMENT OF MULTINATIONAL FORCE TO HAITI

FOR 3 MONTHS, UNANIMOUSLY ADOPTING RESOLUTION 1529 (2004)

Declares Readiness to Establish Follow on Stabilization Force to Support Peaceful, Constitutional Political Process

The Security Council tonight, acting in response to the deteriorating political, security and humanitarian situation in Haiti, authorized the immediate deployment of Multinational Interim Force for a period of three months to help to secure and stabilize the capital, Port-au-Prince, and elsewhere in the country.

Unanimously adopting resolution 1529 (2004), the Council, acting under Chapter VII of the Charter, authorized the Force to take all necessary measures to fulfill its mandate.

That mandate also includes, among others, facilitating the provision of humanitarian assistance and the access of international humanitarian workers, and facilitating the provision of international assistance to the Haitian police and Coast Guard to establish and maintain public safety and law and order and to promote and protect human rights.

The Council also declared its readiness to establish a follow-on United Nations stabilization force to support continuation of a peaceful and constitutional political process and the maintenance of a secure and stable environment.

Further, the Council demanded that all parties to the conflict cease using violent means, and that they respect the constitutional succession and the political process under way to resolve the current crisis.

Tonight’s action came following the resignation of President Jean-Bertrand Aristide and his departure from the country. Boniface Alexandre, head of Haiti’s Supreme Court, has been sworn in as acting President, in accordance with the Constitution. Haiti’s political situation became volatile after flawed elections in May 2000, and in recent months, confrontations became violent as the positions of the Government and opposition hardened.

The meeting began at 9:52 p.m. and adjourned at 9:55 p.m.

Welcomes the Secretary-General’s February 27 appointment of a Special Adviser for Haiti, and requests the Secretary-General to elaborate a programme of action for the United Nations to assist the constitutional political process and support humanitarian and economic assistance and promote the protection of human rights and the development of the rule of law;

5. Calls on Member States to contribute personnel, equipment and other necessary financial and logistic resources on an urgent basis to the Multinational Interim Force and invites contributing Member States to inform the leadership of the force and the Secretary-General of their intent to participate in the mission; and stresses the importance of such voluntary contributions to help defray the expenses of the Multinational Interim Force that participating Member States will bear;
